THE LAWYER'S REVENGE A Tale of the Common Law.

BY LEGULETES QUIDAM, Esq.

When Squire Littleton died, not is months after the trial, all Pleasant Valley was astounded by discovered what only Sam and a few intimate friends had known before; namely, that his only child, the supposed heic-ess, would be left nearly penniless. Mingled with expressions of pity for her, were many sly cuts and shrewd jakes at the supposed failure of Sam's deep-laid scheme. The loungers at the tayern, and the knot of evening social residual to the fitting of his evenillating in that functions and expenditure in that famous case, and shuckled at the thought that the wily awyer's speculation would foot up so largely on the wrong side. They were a little surprised, afterwards, to find that he made no effort to repay himself out of the few hundreds saved for Bessie from the wreck of her father's estate. One of the more charitable among them even suggested, upon one occasion, that Sam, though a lawyer, had some little generosity left. But this notion was so instantly and generally seouted by his wiser companions, that it never was broached again; and the only theory that at all satisfied their minds was, that in with Bessie Littleton, Sam was fairly он сощия. Bessie, with all her acknowledged faults, had been a favorite, and when her father's fine old house was sold under the hammer, the homeless girl would have been a welcome guest be-neath many a roof in the village.-But she could not be a dependant where she had almost reigned a queen; end, after a few weeks of restless flitting from place to place, she accepted

These runors soon were reduced to e risinty; for one Saturday afternoon a sprucely-dressed gentleman was seen at the door of the tavern, and the next morning that same sprucelydressed gentleman walked into the village church with Bessie on his arm. Oddly enough it happened, that Sam Sanders had ridden over that morning to hear an old schoolfellow preach. The comparison between the two lovers, as to the outward man, was deeidedly in the new comer's favor. Grim old bachelorhood had settled down prematurely on Sam, and stampmark on his eareless attire, and his bushy hair: and hard work, in a hard profession, had not improved a face which never was handsome. The stranger, on the contrary was eminently a handsome man, and no little of a dandy. His face was a perennial smile, and when he smiled he showed a set of beautiful teeth that you could Turkish not help noticing. They seemed to

During the week that followed,

. Bessic was the gayest of the gay. Innumerable were the parties of pleasure executed or projected for the amusement of her lover and herself. It speedily became known, through the half dozen confidential friends; to whom she had whispered the recret; that she would not return to the city till Mr. Whicherly could make the arrangements for their union: Mr. Whicherly was a prosperous merchant and of course must prepare a fine house for his intended bride. Of Providence. FOR GENERAL TREASUREM ROBERT H. CARR. Of Newport.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS. Bastern District. THOMAS DAVIS,

Of North Providence Western District, WILLIAM D. BRAYTON; Of Warwick.

Our Candidate for Congress.

It is with the heartiest, satisfaction that we hear from all parts of the District intelligence which renders the election of THOMAS DAVIS to Congress all but certain. The bitterness with which the cam aign is carried on against him by some who profess the same principles of which he is so distinguished an advocate, has done more to show the purely personal motives of their conduct, than to injure his prospects. It is worthy of notice, the difference in the spirit of the two sides as shown in the public press. The friends of Mr. Davis take positive and straight-ferward ground. They polit to him as a fearl, free-spoken, honest man, who dares to avow all he thinks, and whose opinions thus freely expressed, are worthy of all men's support and confidence. They do not found their hopes in attacks upon his opponent. They claim his election for what he is, not for what Mr. Robinson is not. They point with pride to his record in a former Congress and to his out-spoken sentiments, and well known character now; and without seeking to dispurage any other candidate, they say emphatically that he is the best man for

His opponents pursue a very different line of tactics. They seem to oppose him, not because they love Robinson more, but his opponents less. Never was a candidate so little heard of among his own supporters as Christopher Robinson, Esq., of Cumberland. We do not remember seeing a single word about his qualifications or merits. except that the Journal once endorsed him as a Henry Clay Whig. Certainly his name is not mentioned once in their papers to twenty times for that of Mr. Davis. His claims are founded not on anything he himself is, but on his being the opponent of his opponent. Of all the public discussions of the rival nonfinations, not three paragraphs would lose their meaning if for the name of Christopher Robinson were substituted that of any other old-line Whig in the State.

This is a very significant fact, and one that should weigh well with the impartial This is no time for negative candidates or negative characters. The next Congress will need men who each count one whether · they stand alone or at the tail of a party. The North needs such men; Rhode Island with her little delegation and wide-extended interests, needs them most of all. Apart from political advantages, we all know how much benefit an active, experienced, determined Representative can always do his State, without distinction of party. It were invidious to look back and name those who in former years have been an honor and an advantage to the State, in the estimation alike of friends and opponents; but the memory of our renders will recur to such at once, and they will feel the need of sending to Washington a man who like Thomas Davis is selected for what he is and what he has done and can do again.

For another reason we shall rejoice at Mr. Davis's success. If we are ever to have a united Republican party it must be done by frawning down every effort to keep up forgotten party distinctions. We want no patched up coalition to be managed for the exclusive benefit of the heirs of a defunct clique. The fete of the American Republic n organization was sealed when it was openly avowed that its object was terget sid of men like Thomas Davis; and Rowland G. Hazard : to breek ranks with the party which contained Henry Wilson and Nathaniel P. Banks. It is in vain for them after this to talk of a union which shall simply favor voting for their favorites, and helping to set once more on its legs the Filinore perty of 1856. If the Provit dence Journal is sincere as it professes in its desire of harmony it must teach its friends this less on first of all. The experiment of "crushing cut" one element of the Itepublican party has been tried pretty thoroughly. Had they been men of less principle it might have driven them back at the December of the principle it might have driven them back at the December of the principle it might have driven them back at the December of the province of the principle it might have driven them back at the December of the province of the principle it might have driven them back at the December of the province of the principle it might have driven them back at the December of the province of the principle it might have driven them back at the December of the province of the province of the principle it might have driven them back at the December of the province of the principle it might have driven them back at the December of the province of the province of the province of the province of the principle it might have driven them back at the province of the principle it might have driven them back at the province of the principle of the principle of the principle of the province of the province of the principle of the province of the principle of the province of the principle of the principle of the province of the province of the principle of the province of the principle of the province of the principle shall simply firm voting for their favorites, to the Democratic party. As it was they fnade a stand by theniselves, and have already been joined by the sands of honest men who were counted on by the wire pullers. Temporary weakness d'd not discourage them; open defection to the enemy's standard, when better nominations were offered did not throw them into the anticipated confusion; and the Straight sells gin for eight cents a pint, and bad rum for six. Testimony on the stand revealed the fact that some of this liquor, sold last Sunday, caused the main who drank it to beat his little son. There never was a greater delusion in the world than that any other party in this State will be recognized by the Republicans of the Union next year. The Journal talks of the Union party in Pennsylvania, the People's party in New Jersey. Were either of these recognized at Pittsburg and Philadelphia in 1856? Will any such local clans be entitled to a voice in 1860? We earnestly hope indeed that some such may exist, and that the men who have composed them will be found arowed Republicans. We hope that in this state one undivided Republican party will do as nobly for its candidate as it did for Fremont. We are ready to work faithfully and heartily for such a party, but it must open its doors equally wide for all, whether they lave been Democrats or Whigs, or Americans, provided they are honestly with us. Of such a party Thomas Davis will be one of the ornaments : and we sincerely hope to see him honoring it in a seat upon the floor of the next Congress.

J. Q. A. Griffin of Malden, Moss., law and legislator, is an occasional writer for the newspaners, and tells an amusing story of being called upon to sue a publisher for a libel contained in an article written by himself.

- A leading law firm in Detroit once rerespondent to libel a certa in steamboat for an alleged claim. They wrote back word that there were three objections: first, that the claim was an unjust one, second, that the boat was not liable; third, that the senior of the firm was the owner of the boat to be sued! -

INTERESTING TO GENTLEMEN .- One of the most extensive, as well as best selected June, stocks of fabries for gentlemen's dress goods that we have seen this season is opened this week by H. E. Armington, at 52 School street. Mr. Armington has gained quite a reputation for the taste, ele-gance and finish which characterizes all garments made at his establishment; and the innumerable styles from the most celebrated European manufactories, importer by his special order this season, (with trimmings to match.) affords an opportunity for the gratification of almost any taste. An adherence to the cash system cambles Mr. Armington to make and sell goods at quite a low figure.

His stock of goods now opened are an endorsement to his reputation for taste and enterprize, and really worthy the inspection of gentlemen.—Boston Commercial Bul-

A BOLD AND SHREWD PUSH FOR FREE DOM .- The Oxford (Miss.) Mercury tells

the following story:
"Saturday night a man, who appeared to be perfectly white, but who was really a negro, appeared at Mrs. Butler's hotel and applied for lodgings for himself and servant—a negro man very black. He represented himself a traveller going North, and after eating supper with the regular guests, requested before retiring to be called up in time to leave on the six o'clock train next time to leave on the six of clock from next morning, which was accordingly done. The black darkey was placed in the negro car, while the white one quietly seated himself among the white folks in the passenger car. Shortly after the train was in motion, a ne-Shortly after the train was in motion, a negro train hand passed through the negro car, and recognized our black passenger seated therein as an old friend. "Hello, Sam!" said the hand, "where you gwine?" "I'se gwine Norf; I beloug to a gemmen in de oder car." "Don't believe you is; you runnin' off, Sam.' Sam flatly denied this, but the other was still in doubt. He personnted what had passed to the conducpersonated what had passed to the conduc-tor, who particularly noticed the gentleman in the "oder car," and came to the conclusion that he was either an abolition emissary, or something else that was not right. BT The lecture of Hon. Amos C. Bastow at Aquidneek Hallon Monday even.ng, was well attended, and more than realized the anticipations of his many friends. It was a leantiful exposition of law in reference to virtue, in all its various relations, in the nursery, family, school, business, and in the obligation is imposed upon electors and officers, strongly contrasting the benefits to be derived by its proper enforcement, with the dril resulting from its contempt. The lecturer not only evinced a perfect acquaintance with his subject, but convinced his andienes that the labor of his preparation had been stores. CLERGYMAN ARRESTED WHILE A CLERGYMAN ARRESTED WHILE PREAGHING A FUNERAL SERMON.—As the Rev. William Watson, the pastor of the Methodist Church in Gl nwood, Iowa, was preaching a funeral sermon, he was arrest-ed by officers from an adjoining courty for passing counterfeit money. The people in attendance at the funeral were so incensed at the officers that they thrust them from the bouse, and they concluded to retiro un-til the obsequies were concluded. The clergyman did not accompany the procession to the grave, and the officers arrested him. They had previously searched his house, in the cellar of which they found take, presses, papers, rolling machines, and the entire apparatus for the manufacture of sounterfeit bank bills. They also found $2.000 in sounterfeit bank bills. $1,000 in counterfeit bills, $800 of were tens on the Forest City Bank of this city, and about $200 in fives on the State Bank of Ohio. He became connected with some counterfeiters about two years ago, and, as he had been in early life ver, he became a useful and hard-working member of the gang. He has preached in Clenwood about three years. He is about forty years old, a man of family, and has been very generally esteemed and respectod by his congregation and neighbors. He said he joined the counterfeiters to get money "to do good with."

Good News

From all ports of the State we hear most encouraging accounts to relation to the prospects of the Republican ticket. In the Eastern District particularly, the prospeets of Mr. Davia grow brighter and brighter every day. Meetings have been held almost every evening in some part of the district, at which Mr. Davis and others have spoken to full and attentive audiences, and there is sectedly a school district in the costern part of the State, who, a warm and carnest friends are not at work to secure replenishing, and the common dominator, the covenants and domitories, the provin-ces and the umpires, they had addication enough. But now they have to study bottomy, algerbay, and have to demonstrate suppositions of sycophants of circusses, tangenis and Diogenes and parallelogramy, to say nothing about the oxhides, coroctics and abstruce triangles! Thus saying, the old lady leaned back in her chair, her knitting work fell in Ler lap, and for some minutes she seemed in meditation.

A Philadelphia correspondent of The National Era writes to that paper that Mr. Pierce Butler, a report of the sale of whose slaves we recently published, is a pram-inent member of the Eriscopal Church in Philadelphia. "He is," continues The Era's correspondent, "in full communion with the 'Church of the Epiphany,' of which the Ite Rev. Dudley A. All chronic and difficult cases, such as have existed for years, are completely and permanently cured in the shortest possible time by the Doctor's improved course of treat-by the Dector's improved course or treatment.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—As it is always important to obtain the services of an experienced and skillful physician call on the celebrated Dr. Dr. W. No. 7, Endicott street.—Med. and Surge, Jour.

Dit. DOW will say nothing of his qualifications as a Physician and Surgeon, being a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Licentiate of the "State Medical Society of NY, and for more that twelve years a practitioner of this city, during which time he had no doubt cured more of those difficult and chronic cases (such as nothing but practical xperience can ensure success) than by other physicians in Boston.

By his late improved course of practice.

are cured in a very few days without mercury, regard to diet or fear of exposure, SECONDARY SYPHILIS, &c.
Secondous affections, ulcers in the thront or neck, nodes and caries of the bones, eruptions on the skin, and every impurity of the blood thoroughly and completely eradicated. Persons afflicted with any private complaints should rall as early as possible after contracting the disease, as much time and money may be saved thereby.

should rall as early as possible after contracting the disease, as much time and money may be saved thereby.

TO YOUNG MEN.—You who are troubled with seminal weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are nocturnal emmissions, pains and dizziness in the head, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, &c., terminating in consumption or insanity, if neglected, are speedily and permanently cured by Dr. Dow.

TO MIDBLE-AGED OR EVEN OLD MEN, whose procreative organs have become inactive or weakened by the excesses of any kind, but especially had habits in youth, Dr. DOW would respecially had habits in youth, Dr. DOW would respecially say that from the extensive practice which he has had in treating the abore complaint for over fourteen years, he is enabled to guarantee a perfect urer in all cases; that is, a restoration of thuse organs to their natural and healthy state. Hardly a day passes that he is not called upon to cure the above complaints, and he is happy to say that his course of treatment has invariably effected a speedy cure.

Beware of all kinds of Exhilerating Cordials, as they are of no use.

To the unhealthy, the mere mention of the name of the far-fained and justly popular physician, Dr. Dow, that he can at all times be found at home that he is surpassed by none in curing all forms of disease however progracted, ill-treated, or mercurity affected, is a consolation to his patients, and an honor to himself.—Balt. Amer.

All afficiend with private complaints, if possible, should consult Dr. Dow, whose medic education is not surpassed by any physician in the country. In his skill, honor and integrity, all may rely with safety, while meet all of the medical practitioners are without honesty or regionsibility, their pretensions being grounded in ignorance and assumption.—Republican Argus.

There are a great many joing men whose from here of 60 vile fres. "fact." We would all vise all such to call on Dr. Dow, of Boston, whose practical experience in certain diseases no dout exceeds that of any other physician in America.—Journal of Health.

Dr. Dow consults with physicians, as usual, on difficult chronic diseases. Charges reasonable. TO FEMALES.

TO FEMALES.

All diseases peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, &c., speedily and effectually removed. The efficacy of his remedies for the cure of the above affections, has been well tested in his extensive practice for the last fifteen years in this city, and never was known to fail in effecting a cure where the directions were followed a reasonable time.
